Pathwork on the Tree of Life

Greetings. I am Juliano. We are the Arcturians.

I want to do a simple and quick review of this concept that I introduced calling it the “Pathwork on the Tree of Life”, because by becoming a Planetary City of Light you are also accepting a responsibility towards planetary healing and towards planetary development. So, yes, it is true that the Planetary City of Light participates in a network of other Planetary Cities of Light.

There is a reason for this, because the Planetary Cities of Light do not exist and do not work in isolation, but rather they work together in a network. That means supporting each other, but also it implies that you are working together for the planet. It is not, for example, just to improve the area of San Pere de Ribes, for example, but it is also that San Pere de Ribes wishes and is making a contribution to the entire planet.

So that's what I mean when I say that to become a Planetary City of Light, you are accepting the responsibility toward planetary healing, towards planetary development. This is important because, remember, each area is working to bring a healing for the whole planet. Each area has a contribution, a special energy that they can give for the planetary healing project and for the planetary healing energy and for what I call the Planetary Noosphere, or the collective thought, the collective subjective subconscious, the collective thought fields of all of the Earth. By linking the network of Planetary Cities of Light, you are creating more arcan energy, more powerful energy, much more powerful energy than you could do individually or singularly.

Now I want to use this as a background for understanding the pathwork that I have described which is, yes, rather a complicated concept, a complicated idea, to work with. Yet, if we are able to explain it simply and if you are able to accept it, you will see that it has great potential for accelerating and amplifying each Planetary City's of Light work. I will use San Pere de Ribes as an example again because of the energies and the clarity by which San Pere da Ribes has accepted and worked with their mission. So, they understood and they accept a teaching model. That is, what model, what information is San Pere de Ribes willing to offer to the planet? And that mission they accepted was "The New Just Society."

The New Just Society is a visionary experience. It is a visionary prophecy of what a city of higher light would look like in the fifth dimension. And you know that sometimes this prophecy or this prophetic vision of a City of Light in the fifth dimension has been called "Shamballa". Now, that City of Light, that fifth dimensional City of Light, would have certain principles by which it operates. Some of those principles are very etheric. We've talked about having a white light around the Planetary City of Light, therefore only people of higher energy can enter the City of Light. Also, we find that lower people who want to create mischief or bad actions cannot come in.

But there is also another concept that I have designated as the New Just Society where there is some development of social justice, there is some development of welfare and social equality. I have lovingly referred to the work of Chief White Eagle, and other Native Americans from the North and South American continents, who made the beautiful statement, "we are all brothers and sisters". That simple statement encompasses the idea of the New Just Society, because if you look at everybody in your city as a brother and sister then you would treat them with respect, you would treat them with great care and love.

I know this is a difficult situation, especially in this time of social chaos, of polarizations, of refugee and immigrant crises, etc. But at the same time there is a way to treat people like they are family. This becomes the basis because you would not mistreat your own family. This is important when we look at the relationship between the Planetary Cities of Light and the Earth. Remember we are working with the Sacred Triangle, so we are bringing together the teachings of the Native Americans. So how do the teachings of the Native Americans relate to the Just Society and to planetary healing? The teachings of the Native Americans say that the Earth is our mother. So, we must respect our mother and as a New Just Society, as a teaching of this path, we must look at what it means to have a good relationship and a respectful relationship with the Earth.

So the New Just Society means that all of the inhabitants are treated as brothers and sisters and it also means that, in the New Just Society, the whole area, the physical area, the rivers, the trees, the gardens, the air, the oceans are all treated with respect, like you would treat your mother. But, it is one thing to speak idealistically about the New Just Society and it is another thing to manifest it and work with it. I know that it is complicated. I know that there are many problems. You, especially in Europe, are dealing with some of the complex problems which do not seem to have easy solutions, in establishing the Just Society. But, we must introduce the concept. We must introduce the ideals, because all change comes from advanced visualizations, advanced work in thought forms. The Earth does have the resources and you do have the resources to work together as brothers and sisters. You have the resources to treat your Sacred Space, not only as a Just Society but as a society that respects its mother, Mother Earth, as it is manifested in your Planetary City of Light.

I am Juliano. Good Day.
