Q&A with Juliano

More On Shimmering

Juliano, channeled by David K. Miller

Shimmering can also be performed around Planetary Cities of Light and even the aura of the earth, producing what we call the shimmering light. The shimmering lights are representative of an energy field based on telepathic interactions between Third Dimensional Starseeds and Fifth Dimensional Energy. The shimmering light is a telepathic Etheric Force Field that is accelerated through Etheric Crystal work. It can be described as a circular energy field that is distributed around a designated area. The designated area usually begins in a small circle. We find that the Starseeds have an easier time working to create an energy field of shimmering light in a small area, and then expand it with great enthusiasm and telepathic work. It can be expanded around a city. Eventually it can be expanded around a planet.

Shimmering implies the ability to flicker in and out of a dimension. A person who is shimmering will look like they are in one energy normally, like in Earth energy. Then a second later they will seem to disappear temporarily and perhaps

Keller

Elizabeth HeartStar Keller is Member of the Month. She has lived between Sedona, Arizona and Glastonbury, England since 1995. She works as an astrologer and sacred site tour guide. In a channeling with David in 2016, the Arcturians suggested she use the term to describe what she does as an Arcturian Ascension Astrologer. She feels connected to the Arcturian Spirit Guide Helio-Ah.

Elizabeth was a participant in the 2017 workshop in Prescott where she successfully gave over 10 astrological readings to our members at the workshop. She was very well received.

Elizabeth reports, "I have received so much and I am so grateful to David for sharing the love and wisdom from the Arcturians and other guides. I first became a member of GOF in 2005 and just recently renewed my membership. I look forward to meeting more members and being more involved with GOF planetary healing work."

On April 28th and 29th, 2018, Elizabeth HeartStar and Carol Nayach of London, England, will be facilitating a two-day event that the Arcturians (through Juliano) have called "The Intersection of the Dimensions - The Stonehenge only an outline of their energy field or signature of their energy field will remain visible on the Third Dimension. Then they appear in the Fifth Dimension. The person who is experiencing that has a feeling of elation, almost a feeling of ecstasy. That is because Fifth Dimensional energy is experienced as an ecstatic feeling from a Third Dimensional perspective.

I, Juliano, say that each of you, who are listening to or are reading these words, now have the ability to shimmer.

Know that you first develop the individual ability to shimmer, and then you are able to carry that ability into the biorelativity. We will introduce another aspect of shimmering, which is the connection established in the Group of Forty. I would like you to understand that the Etheric Crystals originated as cloned or duplicate crystals from the Crystal Temple. The Crystal Temple is a lake in which all 1600 Group of Forty members are in their Fifth Dimensional bodies around the lake. We can help you shimmer from your place here to that Fifth Dimensional Lake. I want you to visualize that you are all sitting in a huge circle around this planet. You are at the level, perhaps, of the Moon. If you looked at the distribution of everyone listening and reading these words, you might say that no one is sitting in a perfect circle because everyone is in a different location. Remember, from a holographic standpoint we are not looking for equidistant placements. We are looking for telepathic connections. Visualize that your spirit etheric presence can separate from your physical body and move that duplicate etheric astral presence to a huge circle of GOF members above Earth at a level comparable to the Moon. Your physical body remains in a meditative state. I am going to give certain tones and energy. You are going to be able to shimmer, moving into the Fifth Dimensional Crystal Temple body and then back into your physical body. The etheric body that is sitting in a circle around the level of the Moon is the transducer or intermediary between the shimmering. Anyone watching you in the Third Dimension would see your energy field begin to vibrate. You will experience an ecstasy-like feeling when you are able to shimmer into the Fifth Dimensional Light. When you hear these words and tones, begin to do this process, if you wish. Sings: O Shimmering light. Tones: Tat,tat,tat,tat,tat,tat. Sings: Shimmering light.

As you shimmer your etheric presence into the Crystal Temple, note that the crystal in the temple in the lake has risen and it is now above the lake. It is communicating with the other Fifth Dimensional Etheric Crystals on the planet. Sings: Shimmering light. Tones: Tat,tat,tat,tat. Set the intention for you to have the power and determination to work with this light fully in your Third Dimensional body. This

This channeling will be available to GOF members around the world through the GoToMeeting platform webinar. David will be providing registration information about the channeling in an upcoming announcement.

Starseeds Counselling

I am Gudrun Miller and I have been a professional counselor for over 30 years.

Dear GOF Members,

I would like to share an incident from my own life in order to help with understanding connecting with departed loved ones.

My father died several years ago. He and I resolved our differences before he passed away. In fact, he read all of David's books and was reassured that there was life after death! He was an engineer by profession and was amazed at the quality and preciseness of the information that came through David!

My sister is 18 years younger than me. She was his caregiver before he died and she was very attached to him. When he died, she went into deep grief. She asked me why Dad did not contact her. She was desperate to know he was OK and she just wanted to be reassured he was still with her.

crystal at the Crystal Temple is connected with the Great Attractor Force that I spoke about. This is the attractive force, which is pushing or pulling the galaxies in a direction. A small percentage of force, a single light ray or energy ray from this source would be extremely powerful. Now such a small ray has been downloaded into this crystal in the Crystal Temple. It is distributed to each of you from the top of the crystal to your Third Eye where you are sitting in your Fifth Dimensional bodies around the Crystal Lake. You are all sitting on one level as Fifth Dimensional beings in a circle around the Crystal Lake. The crystal in the Crystal Lake has now received this ray of energy and spiritual force from the Great Attractor Force. That ray is downloaded from the crystal into your Third Eye. You can now download that energy into your etheric body that is around the Moon. You can also download the energy into your physical body on Earth. Tat, tat, tat, tat, tat. Ehoheheh. Tatatatatat.

We want to review some principles of holographic healing that we have mentioned in previous lectures. The holographic distribution of healing light can start from a powerful area that is vibrant and healthy, such as an area that is holding an etheric Fifth Dimensional crystal. Holographic healing energy states that one part represents the whole. From the Arcturian standpoint, holographic healing means that one can ideally go to a healthy vibrant part of a planet, a vibrant part of the biosphere, and from that point download and distribute energy to other areas of the planet. Our belief is that the biosphere, as an etheric energy force, must first be updated before the other parts come into a healing mode. Look at the ozone hole. Look at the holes in the Earth's energy field. Look at the pollution or any other areas of distress. You can now visualize the unblocking of the meridian lines underneath that area being opened and receiving life force energy. You can now visualize the etheric crystals, the ones you are familiar with, distributing powerful currents of light force throughout the meridian lines. This light force resonates and updates the bioenergy field. The bioenergy field of Earth is now in two dimensions simultaneously. It is around Earth and around the etheric Fifth Dimension Earth as well.

International Biorelativity Update

The Biorelativity Team held one training webinar in January. Over 30 GOF members attended. The team will continue to do quarterly training sessions.

Also, the committee decided to change our team from Biorelativity to Planetary Healing/Biorelativity. It was felt that this would help people understand our intentions better.

We will continue to work with monthly themes and are happy to report that the response to our work has been great!

David K. Miller

About six weeks after my father's death, David took a walk in the woods behind our house. My father spoke to him and told him that he had been trying to speak with my sister, Heidi, but that she was so despondent with grief, he could not reach her. He gave more information for her and he spoke in a manner that was very typical of him. He asked that David pass this information on to Heidi, and he asked that she be told to connect with him from a place of peace within her heart.

I was thrilled to hear about the transformation of my father who had been so narrow minded and lacking in spiritual awareness for most of his life. So this is also a lesson in the power of transformation and of the possibility of the awakening of consciousness!

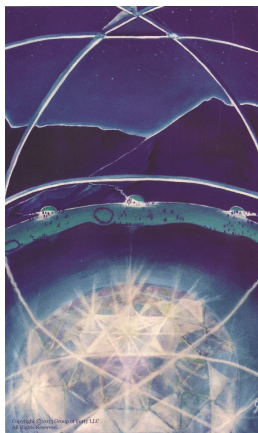

When I shared this with Heidi, she was convinced it was Dad because of his way of speaking! She was reassured and has since had dream contact with him.

Both of my parents are in the astral plane and probably have more Three Dimensional work to do. It was also a great release for me because I let go of the remainder of my resentments at having had these parents, and am now able to see them as evolving spiritual beings who benefitted from having me in their lives and also of having David as a son-in-law!

Thank you all for your participation in the GOF! I love all of you.

Planetary Cities of Light Report

Lin Prucher
International PCOL Coordinator

linprucher@groupofforty.com

Here is an abbreviation of one of the monthly messages that Juliano gave at a Monthly PCOL Meeting. All GOF members are invited.

We are working with you in creating a network of Planetary Cities of Light. Why is this concept of the network so important and how does the Planetary Cities of Light global network relate to the concept and the idea of quantum cohesiveness? "Quantum cohesiveness" is a term that is derived from the concept in physics known as "quantum entanglement."

On the subatomic level, it was discovered that one particle would affect another particle even though those particles were separated. It does not matter how far apart the particles are. The basis of the particles that you are creating in your Planetary Cities of Light area is an energy thought field. Thoughts are subatomic particles. Thought fields are actually an energy force.

Remember, what happens in one particle can affect the other particle. The key to understanding the subatomic particle physics is consciousness. The key to understanding the quantum energy fields that are cohesively connecting one Planetary City of Light to the other Planetary Cities of Light is consciousness.

What we are saying is that you are seeking to complete a connection. Cohesive means that it is sticking together. Cohesive means that the energy is close to each other.

The Planetary Cities of Light shall not be individual. They shall not be separate. The reason is that they would not have the strength. They would not have the global cohesiveness. So, what happens in one city can and will affect the others. So, if one city is having a difficult time energetically, then the energy from another city can help it. If one city is having bad weather, for example, or having maybe a storm, then their connection to the other cities, the other Planetary Cities can help it.

The GOF Earth Balance Biorelativity Team focuses on a meridian for a period of three months and then moves on to another meridian. This means a meridian that has been worked with is left without focus. So, we now have small groups of GOF members and supporters around the Planet focusing and meditating with a set meditation on a chosen meridian line.

We also have groups in:

- * California, led by Christofer Aven
- * Massachusetts, led by Keith Kreyling
- * Three groups in Australia, on the Gold Coast and in Sydney.

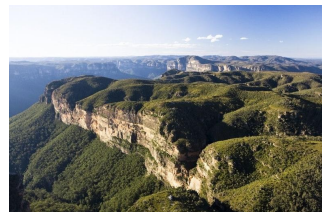

There will be another group formed in Melbourne, Australia and more groups around the planet in 2018.

Did you know...?

The Noosphere is the collective energy vibrations of the Earth and the Earth's interaction with all thought patterns that are occurring, and have occurred on this planet throughout its history. This is a fantastic repository of thought energy.

This Noosphere is a thought field composed of thought waves and thought particles accumulated over the existence of the history of the planet. Mankind's thought waves and energy have had a more dramatic effect on the Noosphere because mankind is the highest being that has been on this planet. When I say highest being, I mean mankind's thoughts have been more powerful than those of any other being that has been on this planet. The Noosphere also contains the Collective Unconscious and Subconscious energies from the Galaxy. The planets are linked in a web of thought particles and thought transmissions that are a web of galactic vibrations. That means that planets have knowledge of different stages of planetary evolution.

A planet knows what stage of evolution it is in. The stages of evolution are measured in two ways. The first is whether or not it has life on it. The second way is measured whether it has advanced life on it. Advanced life is defined as the ability of the beings on the planet to influence the planet.

Mankind is still in an early stage trying to work out whether to destroy itself, destroy the biosphere or to advance to a higher evolutionary state. We are still struggling to understand that Earth is a living spirit that we can communicate with. One of the ways of communicating is through the concepts of Biorelativity. One of the basic tools of Biorelativity is ceremony and talking to the Spirit of the Earth.

The Earth responds to this kind of conversation. The Earth responds to the Medicine Wheel and to Man's thought waves and images. The Earth responds to the galactic communications from other sources.

These thought waves and patterns are going directly into Earth's Noosphere, directly into your subconscious and your superconscious.

Earth will ascend. You will ascend. Ascension energy is inherently in our collective unconscious and the planetary super conscious.

channeling by David Miller. At our September 10, 2017, meeting, he brought forth some of Juliano's predictions for 2018. Juliano said it is natural to expect a continuation of events and polarizations that have their roots in 2017. Thus one expects political and economic polarizations to continue to strengthen in 2018. But one should realize that both sides of the polarization are to become stronger. This means that spiritual strength and spiritual energy should be expected to increase in 2018.

Global spiritual awakening is going to become a stronger force. Although spiritual movements on Earth are now seriously fragmented, Juliano says that in 2018 there is going to be a global unifying spiritual movement. He hesitates to name a specific leader for this movement but states that the movement will include Fifth Dimensional consciousness.

In 2018 it will still be obvious that the Earth is in an out-of-balance situation. To rebalance the Earth, it will be necessary to reopen its meridian lines, many of which have been blocked by, for example, dams on rivers and the toxic pollution of the oceans. But there will come a point in 2018 where a greater planetary awareness about protecting the meridian lines is going to emerge.

In terms of specific political events, Juliano sees:

* A constitutional crisis involving the presidential leadership in the United States, which will lead to a weakening of the President.

- * Regarding North Korea, a political solution involving China, Russia and the United States will avoid war.

- * There will be continued political instability in Europe, with the emergence of right-wing political movements.

- * In South America, instability in Brazil's government and the dictatorial aspects of Venezuela's government will continue. At the same time, the spiritual movement in South America will become stronger and it is possible that a world spiritual leader can emerge from South America.

The transition known as death has many different components on the Earth. The application of communication with the dead at transition depends on several factors:

- * The culture you live in
- * The belief systems by which you are operating
- * The intention and spiritual advancement of the person
- * Your intention

It is difficult to give one blanket recommendation about which is the proper procedure. There have been many creative responses, such as the Book of the Dead, an Egyptian work. I can only give you basic guidance. The communication with the dead and the assistance with the dead, is accelerated in advance through the messages of love. The messages of love and the energy of love are universal and transcend the barriers and the curtains between the living and the dead. Messages of support filled with love are the most effective.

I hope you also understand that whatever religious traditions you may be following are relevant and useful because some of the responses are based on expectations. When a person dies, they may expect to go into a garden or meet Jesus. These are opportunities and possibilities. If you expect nothing to happen, that you are just ending, you may go into a deep sleep and be hard to reach. Part of it is the response and the expectation of the person.

Time in the interdimensional realms, especially after death, is different. You might experience six months that feel like a day or two. I found in our observations and work with humans on this issue that also working with a candle at night has a very high success rate in communicating with the spirit. You are aware of the energies of séances done at night, often in semi darkness. My observation about the best time is when there is less noise and less interference of normal activity during the day like working, family members talking, etc. So there is a benefit in communicating late at night.

It also takes practice. You have to be receptive and the person must exert an effort to communicate. I say again, it is the love and the openness of your heart Chakra to them and the sending of that feeling of love that is the most successful. You can connect with them. It's a lot like channeling. You might feel it's not real, or 'I'm making it all up,' but receive the messages even if they feel as if they are just being made up in your mind. Know that your mind is a very sensitive receiver and can receive information from those who have passed on. Send happy messages. Tell them you are happy to hear from them and that you are sending support. I know that people also like to say 'move on to the light,' or whatever, and that is fine. But again I say, send your love.
