Greetings, this is Juliano. We are the Arcturians. At this moment, we would like to look again at the role of planetary healing and the basic principles that are involved in bringing the planet into balance. The first perspective is for us to look at a planetary aura. The Earth has an aura field just like a human or an animal or a tree, which also have an aura. The planetary healing techniques that we are teaching share principles with personal healing. These include the concepts of meridians and the strengthening, expansion or contraction of a planetary aura as well as whether an aura has holes in it or attachments.

Planetary healers can work towards healing the Earth's aura, and this includes the concept of establishing a fifth-dimensional energy field within the Earth's aura. This is what I consider to be a breakthrough concept in planetary healing, that is, the creation of a fifth-dimensional spiritual energy field within the Earth's aura. We, the Arcturians, and you, the planetary healers and the starseeds, and the Arcturian starseeds, are working together with us to establish this expanded, fifth-dimensional thought field into the planetary aura.

Think for a moment how extraordinary it is to work with the aura of a planet. How many people do you now know, in your day-to-day life, who even talk about a planetary aura, let alone consider that the Earth's aura can be influenced by starseeds? The answer is there are very few people who are currently thinking this way, yet this idea of shaping and adding a fifth-dimensional energy field to the Earth's aura is key for planetary healing.

The planet Earth is energetically out of balance. The Earth is out of balance in terms of climate and in terms of the oceans, but also the Earth's aura, the mental, physical, and emotional energy fields are out of balance, and the Noosphere is out of balance.

The fifth mass extinction occurred over 50 million years ago, which destroyed the dominance of the dinosaurs. Before that mass extinction was about to occur, the Earth's aura was already out of balance. The Earth's aura was energetically attracting and interacting with the doomsday asteroid that struck the planet. When I look at the Earth's aura now, I see many similarities between the condition of the aura now and the condition of the aura approximately 50 million years ago when that asteroid struck the Yucatan Peninsula in the Mexico area, creating catastrophic upheavals that led to the extinction of almost 90% of the plant and animal life on the Earth.

Certainly, at that time of the fifth mass extinction, there were no humans on the planet, and there was not an evolved being that understood or had the ability to work with the planetary aura. The dinosaurs were not advanced spiritually. Now, when we look at this current imbalance, we can say that humanity, especially the starseeds, has the ability to heal and rebalance the aura of the planet. There is a famous dictum in the spiritual writings that says: “As above, so below.” I could apply that to the aura work of the planet and say: “As the planetary aura is, so goes the manifestation of the Earth.” This is positive for us and optimistic for you, because it offers a tool and a technique that will work to change the negative manifestation energy on the Earth.

Our planetary healing goal is based on what I call “Alchemy”. In particular, I call this planetary healing of the aura or “spiritual planetary alchemy”. We are gathering together starseeds with our thought powers, using specific techniques of meditation, thought projection, and group cooperation to change the Earth’s aura in order to have a new physical reality manifested on the planet. That is what we all desire, that is, a new reality and a powerful new Earth balance.

Let us again consider several of the planetary healing tools that we focus on and also perhaps add some other perspectives. What is unique about the Arcturian planetary healing techniques? The most unique aspect of this work is that you and I and the other starseeds are connecting with galactic energy, galactic sources and extrasolar sources to invigorate and to uplift and to rebalance the Earth’s energy field. Galactic Spirituality teaches us that, energetically, you can combine, interact and download higher extra-planetary, spiritual energies from the galaxy. This is a huge advancement in planetary healing work.

As I said, at the time of the fifth mass extinction, there was no one on the planet who could even conceive of this concept of galactic participation in a planetary rebalancing. We are even more specific in that we have the planetary healing tools of connecting with the Galactic Central Sun, and also the Arcturian Temple and the Arcturian Crystal Lake, and the Ring of Ascension, and other, Galactic Ascended Masters who, as we speak, are interacting with any starseeds around the Earth.

The other important tool that we use is what I call “trans-meridian activation”. Trans-meridian activation is a powerful tool in planetary rebalancing. The idea in trans-meridian activation is to re-energize the meridian energy fields of a planet by reactivating current meridians and if necessary establish new meridians.

Creating new meridians is something that is not discussed or found in personal healing, because in personal healing, especially in the meridian work that is done by the ancient Chinese and modern Chinese medicine healing practitioners, they are working with existing meridians, and they are looking to activate pathways between existing meridians. And in the Chinese model, the unbalanced energy is causing blocked pathways between meridians, which cause imbalance and illness.

There are many blocked pathways in the meridians on the Earth. Some of these broken pathways are there because of dams that have been built, blocking waterways. Some of the pathways have been blocked because of the neglecting of the sacred energy that the pathways are on. This could be indicated by people building on a pathway or even making a garbage dump in some cases right in a meridian pathway.

There are many different ways of evaluating and analyzing meridians and pathways. Perhaps the most famous example is the activation and the strengthening of an Earth pathway and meridian that was achieved through the pyramids that were built in ancient Egypt. In this case, you have a clear example of what I call a “trans-meridian pathway”, where the creation of a structure multiplies exponentially the power of the pathway, so that the meridian is able to interact multidimensionally.

The pyramids were the crowning achievement of the ancient Egyptians, and it is for this reason that they were able to bilocate, and that they were able to thought project themselves to Sirius, and even go beyond the Sirian Energy to other planets. It also allowed Ascended Masters from the higher dimensions to appear in Egypt. One primary example is Ptaah, the Pleiadian Master, who had his first and only incarnation in ancient Egypt. But this trans-meridian pathway was accelerated by the building of a pyramid, which then activated interdimensional routes. But this example was not used for healing the Earth, but rather, for accelerating and activating multidimensional portals that could energetically be strengthened through the structure of the pyramids.

Our Arcturian example in trans-dimensional meridian work and portals began with the 12 Arcturian etheric crystals that we downloaded. We chose to use this new model for important reasons. The first reason was that we felt it was too complicated to go into existing meridians, because there is so much damage on the Earth meridians now that it would take a major effort to re-establish a multidimensional linkage that we feel is necessary for rebalancing and healing of the planet. Therefore, it makes it a much easier method to establish a new, what I sometimes call, “bypass meridian system”. The bypass meridian system, then, does not use existing meridians, although they could be on meridian points that are powerful, but rather, they establish new linkages. We wanted to establish a trans-meridian linkage that would help to download a new planetary healing energy. And we wanted this planetary healing energy to be downloaded unfiltered, so that it could have the highest probability of healing and rebalancing the Earth’s aura and energy field.

We believe that the first step in planetary healing is working with the aura of the planet. We are also choosing this method because the concept of the 12 power points and etheric crystals coincides with the 12 spheres in the Kabbalistic Tree of Life.

The Kabbalistic Tree of Life has been updated by us, and we now call it the “Arcturian Planetary Tree of Life”. And the idea is that this system, which we will now call the “Arcturian Tree of Life”, is used throughout the galaxy for planetary rebalancing and healing of the planetary auras and healing of planets. The Arcturian Planetary Tree of Life also can provide the foundation for ascension of a planet. One of our goals is to assist in the ascension of planet Earth. You might think that with the polarizations and the chaos that is now occurring on the Earth, then the ascension of the Earth would be the last thing that possibly could be accomplished. But we never forget about planetary ascension as a goal, and we have always stated, from the beginning of our contacts with the Arcturian starseeds, that our mission is twofold. The first is for the personal healing of the starseeds, and second is to help in the planetary ascension. We still are very optimistic that the Earth can ascend as a planet.

Let us look at the nature of a planetary ascension from the perspective of the auras and the energy field of a planet. We can say that working with the Arcturian Planetary Tree of Life is like working with the DNA of the planet. It is a guide for planetary healing and planetary transformation. We can use the Planetary Tree of Life to evaluate where the imbalances are, and then we can give assistance in those areas that are lacking by promoting and explaining to the world what needs to be added, what needs to be strengthened, to bring a planet back into balance.

This means that, from this perspective of aura work, major gains and major advancements in the planetary development towards the Ascension can occur, especially when you consider that the Earth's aura has multi-layers, just as you do, and also consider that the Earth's aura includes a spiritual side. There exists a planetary spiritual aura, a planetary mental aura, a planetary emotional aura, and you have a planetary physical aura. Planetary aura work can set in motion a higher healing energy. Healers can use the 12 etheric crystals as a meridian bypass and as an accelerated tool for planetary change.

The tools that we have used for personal aura work are critically important in planetary healing, especially planetary healing work for the Ascension. There are only a small number of people now on the planet who are even going to consider working on the planetary aura. I am happy to say that you, the Arcturian starseeds, understand and are willing to work with us on the planetary aura. We need a global group around the planet that is going to practice and visualize the planetary aura exercises that are recommended.

For example, let us take the important aura exercise of scanning. It is important to scan the Earth's aura to look for holes in the Earth's aura. Many of you have been doing wonderful planetary healing work to close some of the holes in the Earth's aura, and your work has assisted greatly in stopping the leakages there. But besides the holes which also continue to need work, there are what I call the parasitic attachments on the planet. There are other beings that are of lower, extraterrestrial vibration in nature, who have put cords of attachments and parasitic attachments onto the planet Earth. Remember that there are extraterrestrial beings that are parasitic. There are also higher beings that are coming to the planet, and they can provide a great upliftment to the Earth, but there are lower beings who are attracted to the phenomenal life force energy on this planet.

Earth has a phenomenal life force energy, and one of the reasons why we call the planet Earth the "Blue Jewel" is because of the fact that a jewel is like a diamond and is a source of wealth, power and beauty whose high value is difficult to measure. A larger diamond could have infinite wealth in terms of trying to calculate the value of a stone. But the Earth's life force energy is phenomenal, even with all of the imbalances that you and I have witnessed over the past years, especially since the nuclear age. Even with all of this, the life force energy of the Earth is truly outstanding. Therefore, I could easily understand why lower beings would want to parasitically attach to this vibrant life force energy.

These lower beings, such as the Reptilians, have parasitically attached and are sucking the life force energies on this planet. And they are doing it not only on the physical level, but also on the mental, emotional and spiritual aspects of the Earth's aura. They are degrading the Earth's aura.

And part of the planetary healing work is to cut the cords of attachment that these beings are participating in, especially without the permission of the planet. You might say who on the planet could even give permission? That is a question that would require quite a bit of exploration. Let it be said that even if it were known publicly, the leaders of the planet would agree that they would not want to tolerate a parasitic attachment sucking the Earth's vital energy force. The Earth's vital energy force is so strong that it has attracted many different levels of extraterrestrial beings. It has attracted higher beings, but it also has attracted, as I said, lower beings, and therefore we want, as planetary healers, to discharge, to release and to cut those cords of attachment.

Another issue in the Earth's aura is the fact that the veil between the Third Dimension and the Fourth Dimension has totally weakened. This weakness has led to great tragedy and great chaos. Why has the veil between the Third and Fourth Dimension weakened? Some of the reasons have to do with the nuclear radiation and the nuclear testing. You know there were probably over 500 nuclear tests above and below ground during the past years, and some of the ones, especially above the ground, were very destructive to the Earth's aura. The Earth's aura is still reformulating itself from that trauma, and unfortunately, some of the damage did result in opening up corridors and transfer points so that lower energies could come into the Earth. These lower energies are what I call "mischievous" lower energies, or what you sometimes call "ghosts". These lower spirits come from other dimensions, not just from this dimension. And these lower spirits create mischievous actions that we see in various negative events, including unexplainable violence, such as in school shootings.

Also, there are so many different global wars going on and even destructions of the environment. Some of the so-called "world leaders" are actually parasitically controlled by lower beings. If your aura is damaged, then you are susceptible to cohabitation from lower spirits. But the good news is that you can reconfigure your aura with minimal amounts of training, and we will be getting more of this training in upcoming lectures. The planetary reconfiguration of an aura requires a great effort. But I am confident that we can reconfigure even this planetary aura.

How would we reconfigure the planetary aura, or how would we reset the planetary aura? Some of this could be accomplished through the techniques which include shimmering, pulsing, visualizing the holes being sealed, and in some cases, kicking out, or cutting the cords of attachment to these lower beings who are negatively affecting the planet. For example, the Reptilians are in the planetary consciousness now, and there are many reports of Reptilian-like figures in the subconscious, or who have also negatively implanted or cohabitated or taken over some people. This can be shifted.

I would like to lead a planetary cleansing meditation. Even though some of these things that I am describing seem very dire, the good news is that a group planetary effort for reconfiguring and rebalancing the planetary aura is possible. And you, as a planetary healing group, are, in our opinion, at the forefront of leading this effort. It is a huge effort to work with the planetary aura. The Arcan Power, or strength, of your thoughts can affect the Earth's aura. The Arcan Power is based on your intention and your thought power and your group participation. Call on us to participate and be with you in these planetary exercises.

I will lead one planetary exercise now. Let us do a clearing first. (Tones “Ohhhhhmm.”) The planetary aura affects each of you. Starseeds are especially empathic and sensitive to the Earth's aura. Your shifting and inputting and rebalancing the Earth's aura can have a major positive effect on you. (Tones “Ohhhm.”) The name of this exercise that I am going to transmit is called “The downloading and strengthening of a spiritual auric field in Gaia.” (Tones “Ohhhm, Ehhhh.”)

Take three breaths and go deeper into a state of relaxation and connect and become aware of your energy field. Become aware of your emotional energy field, your physical energy field, your mental energy field. You also have parts of the planetary energy field attached to your aura. And it is this planetary energy field attached to your aura that we are going to be working with today. Because you are a planetary healer, you have developed a link to the planetary aura. We will be using that part of your aura today.

Travel and bilocate to the Ring of Ascension, the halo around the Earth, which is a multidimensional halo. We are all sitting together around the Earth, and our goal in this exercise is to download a higher fifth-dimensional, spiritual energy field into the aura of the Earth, or to put it another way, to strengthen the fifth-dimensional spiritual energy field of the Earth. This can affect all aspects of the Earth, including, economic, political, social, environmental and climate. All planetary aspects can be affected by the strengthening of the fifth-dimensional spiritual energy field that we are now going to strengthen. (Tones “Ohhh.”)

From this position in the Ring of Ascension, we see the aura of the Earth, and travel around the Ring with me, and we can see the multi-layered aura of the planet. It expands out miles and miles, hundreds, in some cases thousands, of miles from the planet. Part of the Earth's aura is actually one million miles away from the center of the Earth. It is called the Lagrange Point. This just gives you an idea of the vastness of the Earth's aura. You can think of the Earth's aura from the position of the Moon, which is only 239 thousand miles away, but we are saying that the aura goes out farther.

We are at a point right now that we are one million miles outside of the Earth. The Ring of Ascension allows us to be that far away, and we look at the energy field of the Earth. We see from this vantage point, the spiritual energy field; we see the 12 etheric crystals interacting. We see the Planetary Cities of Light that have been activated. We see the many sacred points, including Stonehenge, the pyramids, Jerusalem, many different points in Asia and Africa. Around the planet we see the spiritual forces, but we see also that there are layers of the Earth's aura, and the spiritual layer needs to be strengthened. So together, in the Ring of Ascension, one million miles outside of the Earth, we connect with the Central Sun, and we bring quantum, spiritual, planetary life energy from the Central Sun through us into the Earth's aura, creating and strengthening the fifth-dimensional spiritual part of the Earth's aura. Let us meditate on that process now in silence. (Silence)

The Earth's spiritual aura is being strengthened through this download. Continue using your Arcan Force power to fill up the Earth's aura with spiritual strength. A huge ray of spiritual light from the Central Sun is being downloaded through you and through the Ring of Ascension into the Earth's aura. See the fifth-dimensional spiritual aura of the Earth strengthening, becoming brighter, stronger, filling up with spiritual light, and this spiritual light will spread into all the other parts of the Earth's aura. These layers of light will help the Earth in her ascension. (Tones "Ohhhhhhhh, ohhhhh.")

The Earth's spiritual aura is getting brighter. The interactive forces of the etheric crystals and the Planetary Tree of Life energy, and the energy of the Planetary Cities of Light, and the Ocean Reserves of Light, are getting stronger, creating an abundance of spiritual energies in the Earth's aura that will positively affect all parts of this planet. Another ray of spiritual planetary light from the Central Sun is being downloaded through you and the Ring of Ascension into the spiritual aura of the Earth. See the spiritual aura of the Earth becoming purer in color, becoming whiter, becoming golden, filling all holes, causing all attachments from lower beings to be released. There is a superabundance now of spiritual energy that is going to be transferred to all of the other parts of the Earth's aura, and then this energy will come down through a manifested change known as "planetary spiritual alchemy". (Tones "Oh.") You are planetary spiritual alchemists.

The Earth is filled now with this great downloading and activation. You have set in motion a manifestation of fifth-dimensional rebalancing that is necessary now. This is a time of planetary reset, and the old is going to give way to a new reboot. From your point at the Lagrange Point one million miles away, travel back on the Ring of Ascension, closer to the Earth, and you are now in the midst of the spiritual aura of planet Earth. This is the part of the aura that is going to help the Earth ascend. This is the part of the aura that helps the Earth gather the spiritual light and knowledge throughout the galaxy. Bilocate back into your Earth body, reentering in perfect alignment, knowing that you and I have helped to strengthen the Earth's spiritual energy field. And we can truly say "As above, so below."

There is a spiritual deficit in the Earth's energy field. A stronger spiritual response can manifest balance and harmony on Earth. We are helping to create a new spiritual field of light around the planet. Let this spiritual energy field that we have downloaded today strengthen and begin to permeate the entire planetary system, including all aspects, such as social, emotional, political and climate. These systems also can be positively affected by the higher spiritual energy field. (Tones "Ohhhhhh.")

Now, a light of harmony is streaming around the entire aura of the Earth. Earth chaos can be balanced; this mass extinction can be brought under control. It only takes a few strong planetary healers, and then the few multiply, and soon it will be an advanced participation of hundreds of thousands who will follow this path and spiritually rebalance our beloved Earth. I am Juliano. Good day.
